

NEW ARTIST IN RESIDENCY PROGRAM

STAR Short Term Artist in Residency

As artists, we put our heart and soul into our artwork, we often work in isolation, lose momentum and sometimes even our confidence. We all have a story and a journey with our art, which often comes out in our creative process.

Melville Arts @ Atwell House is providing and opportunity for artists to network and participate in the STAR Program. The program is designed to:

- Nurture the creative process
- Offer artists support to stay inspired
- Offer mentoring to elevate their art practise should they so desire
- To engage with the community, sharing passions and skills with visitors to the Atwell Gallery.
- The opportunity to promote themselves
- Create with other artists and to share your artwork
- To sell their art

As a participant of the Program:

- You can hang paintings or display 3D artwork in section of the gallery
- Make and create in the gallery space

As part of this STAR program, should you desire free mentoring is offered around your art practice and mindset around your creativity, by Brenda Ellen, the Art Centre Manager and Creativity Coach.

The details:

- Open to MCAA Members only
- The program will be offered throughout the year or upon request
- The cost is $10 per day
- Commission on Artwork sold is 25%

The STAR Program at Melville Arts @ Atwell House is here to support artists, promote the arts and be of service to the community.
